Tenpin Stamina Test Set for City Keglers

By JIM TAYLOR

Sore thumbs and tired arms will be the order of the day at Gibson's Bowladrome, April 25-26, when the more hardy souls in city tenpin circles try their hand at something new in local tournaments.

Gibson's is staging a 15-game, non-stop tenpin marathon, first of its kind in British Columbia. The marathons have been growing in popularity since non-stop bowling became a craze in the United States last year.

Manager Rod Hendry announced details of the competition yesterday. Bowlers will roll 15 straight games in three five-game blocks across six alleys, with three players to an alley.

Entry fee is $15, with a scratch score of 200 and 70% handicap with a 35-pin per game limit. There will be a free smorgasbord table for those who need to take on fuel en route.

Hendry, without cracking a smile, said that anyone wishing ta roll a 15-game session as a warmup can do so for a special rate.

Fivepin tournaments are also making news—one that's already finished and another in the planning stage.

Final figures on the Easter 20-game marathon at Capital City Bowling Alleys show that 96 scores of 300 or better were posted by the 176 entrants.

Mary Chayko of Courtenay took top money with a 5,423 total. Following in order were Bob Broomfield of North Vancouver, 5,289; Nick Bailey, North Vancouver, 5,258; Mike Rogers, Victoria, 5,230; Eric Chayko, Courtenay, 5,223; Henry Pedersen, New Westminster, 5,209, and Cec McRae, Victoria, 5,204.

Bailey's 1,282 brought him an extra $66, special prize at 50 cents a point for scores over 1,150. Cec McRae, 1,153, and Gerry Gladei, 1,226, of Vancouver, also got some bonus money. Bailey had 1,001 for one of his three-game blocks.

From Esquimalt Bowladrome comes news of a "trio tournament" that manager Larry Marshall hopes will be the biggest fivepin tourney in city history.

Scheduled April 25-May 10, the tourney is for teams of three with a maximum combined average of 700. Top prize is a guaranteed $240.

Still on the subject of tournaments, Al Rendle won the three-out-of-four tenpin competition at Gibson's Bowladrome, picking up $100 for a 650 series. Jim Taylor and Ann Goodman tied for second with 644.

Jack Logie was the top tenpinner for the week with a 620 (204, 227) series at Strathcona.

Roy Harris, 596 (215); Wilf Smith, 595 (215, 201); Roy Kerr, 574 (234); Rom Knott, 574 (206) were the other top bowlers at those lanes. At Gibson's, Maurie Kozak, 605 (232); Ron Coulter, 589 (203, 201); Ron Simmons, 588 (202); Sheldon Nipp, 587; Dennis Begg, 580 (214); Chuck Bennett, 570, and Jim Tang, 569 (256) took scoring honors.

Carlile & McCarthy won the commercial fivepin league roll-off at Gibson's this week with a five-man, five-game score of 6,157. Team members are Don Corbett (1,496), Cy Wallis (1,284), Bud Brock (1,248), Bill Odgers (1,037) and Len White (1,077).

Vern Fillman rolled 910 this week at Esquimalt, followed by Andy Foley, 897; Bob McLeod, 890 and 802; Bill Woods, 845; John Middlemass, 827, and John Oliver, 807.

Wes Vogler, 847; Pete Corry, 734 (363) and Jim Maxwell, 731 (325) were high scorers at Strathcona.

Cy Wallis had an 866 and an 834 series to lead the way at Capital City Bowling Alleys. Others to break 800 were Dave Allan, 836 (322) and Reg Waggoner, 822 (401).

ARNOLD PALMER
... two in row?.

Leonard Loses Masters' Lead As Champ Bids to Break Jinx

By MILTON RICHMAN

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI)—Scrambling Arnie Palmer put in his bid to become the first man in history ever to win two straight Masters golf titles when he fired a two-under-par 70 yesterday that gave him a two-stroke lead at the tournament's half-way mark.

Winner of his first Masters crown a year ago, the 29-year-old Latrobe, Pa., pro slugged, scrambled and sank putts from every conceivable angle in posting a 36-34 round to go with his opening day 71.

Palmer's two-day aggregate of 141 on Augusta National's rolling 6,980-yard layout moved him out in front of Canada's Stan Leonard, the first day leader. Leonard, unable to match Thursday's three-under-par 69, had a 36-38 — 74 which dropped him into second place with a 143 total.

Today's round of the Masters' Golf Tournament will be telecast live on channels 7 and 12, starting at 2 p.m. Sunday's final round will be shown at 1.30 p.m.

Palmer, the leading money winner last year with total earnings of $45,607.93, actually was two strokes ahead of his Masters time-table of last April when he had a 143 at this time.

"Sure it's crossed my mind that no one ever has won two of these things in a row," he said, after taking over the lead from Leonard. "They never let you forget it. I'm not worried about repeating. All I'm concerned about is winning."

UNUSUAL ROUND

Palmer played the dried-out, hilly course today in a manner that was somewhat unusual for him. His putting was phenomenal where ordinarily his tee shots are his strength. All told, he took only 28 putts, needing only one putt on nine of the 18 greens.

But he was no slouch with the driver, either, particularly on the par-five 520-yard 15th where he tagged his tee shot 290 yards and wound up with a birdie four. Palmer's round consisted of five birdies and three bogeys.

Leonard, visibly disappointed with his showing, took five bogeys and said "it was too darn many." He said the wind bothered him far more than it did Thursday.

Two foreigners — Dave Thomas of Britain and skinny Angel Miguel of Spain—were three strokes behind Palmer with 144's. Thomas, who eagled the par-five 520-yard 15th had a 71 to go with his first round 73 while Miguel, straight but unspectacular, duplicated his opening round 72.

Also at 144 with Thomas and Miguel were Julius Boros, Mike Souchak, Paul Harney and Billy Maxwell. Boros, who shot an opening round 75, had a 69; Souchak coupled a 71 with a first day 73, Harney had a 69 with the help of an eagle to go with a 75, and Maxwell carded a 71, two strokes better than he did Thursday.

It took a total of 149 or better to qualify for the final two rounds today and Sunday and 42 golfers made the grade.

Among the notables who can now pack and go home were Ken Venturi, who skidded to 76 and an aggregate of 151; Lloyd Mangrum in the same group with a 77 yesterday; Billy Casper at 152, and three-time Masters' winner Jimmy Demaret, who soared to 84 and wound up with 162.

Cary Middlecoff, former Open champion Jack Fleck, Jay Hebert, Bo Wininger, Chandler Harper, Wally Burkemo and amateurs Billy Joe Patton and Bill Hyndman III all got through comfortably with 148 totals while Peter Thomson, Chick Harbert and Frank Stranahan were in the 146 bracket.

Dow Finsterwald, whose 68 was the best score of the day, also survived the cut, getting in the 147 category along with pre-tourney favorite Sammy Snead, Ben Hogan, U.S. Open champion Tommy Bolt, Art Wall and Gene Littler.

Wall Embarrassed By 35 One-Shotters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Normally a golfer who makes a hole-in-one busts his buttons and through incessant boasting becomes a clubhouse bore for life.

Not Art Wall, Jr. He's made 35 of them and it's okay with him if he never makes another.

"It's very embarrassing," the lean Pennsylvania professional said Friday. "Everybody thinks you're a liar and a cheat. It burns me up. So I'd rather forget all about it."

The year's leading money winner with $18,814, Wall currently is a contender in the Masters tournament here.

Wall began sinking his tee shots when he was a lad of 12 and a caddy at his hometown club in Honesdale, Pa. He had 25 when he entered Duke University and since then has made 10 more—two in tournaments sanctioned by the Professional Golfers' Association.

Wall's shortest hole-in-one was on a 135-yard hole. His longest was a 300-yarder at Durham, N.C.

The ones he's proudest of were Nos. 32 and 33, made on his home course.

"I was playing with a preacher—Rev. Stanley Lange of the First Presbyterian Church—both times.

"Now let somebody call him a liar."

Mound Staff Solid, Yanks Appear Set

There is increasing evidence as the spring training season nears its end that the world-champion New York Yankees won't have to trade away some of their good young prospects for added pitching depth.

Again planning to get a fast start, the Yankees have been getting some excellent pitching in recent games. Yesterday, rookie John Gabler and Zack Monroe combined to blank Los Angeles Dodgers, 1-0, on two hits to beat Don Drysdale, who appears set for a big season.

Elsewhere, other major league baseball clubs were also getting some good pitching. San Francisco Giants were cheered by the performance of Jack Sanford, who could win them a pennant if he came back to his rookie year of 1957. Sanford was hit hard at the start but settled down to seven scoreless innings as the Giants bested Cleveland Indians, 6-4. Home runs by Bressoud, Wagner and Cepeda brought the Giants from behind.

Pittsburgh Pirates, St. Louis Cardinals, Milwaukee Braves, Chicago White Sox and Washington Senators also got some good pitching.
